

DEATH OF HON. JNO. S. WALKER.

Our community was startled with the announcement yesterday morning of the death of Mr. John S. Walker, who has been a resident of Honolulu for nearly forty years, and during all this period has held a prominent place as a public man and a prosperous merchant. For the past two months he had been ailing and was unable to attend to business, but it was only within a few days past that it became known that he was attacked with an aneurism, which threatened to terminate his life.

Mr. Walker was a native of Aberdeen, Scotland, where he was born in the year 1826, and was consequently 67 years of age. He came here for his health, and found the climate so favorable that he made it his home, and has here always enjoyed good health. In 1866 he married Miss Jennie McIntyre, who survives him as do also ten children—five sons and five daughters. In common with the community of this city and the islands, we mourn the death of one who has been so long one of our number, and whose death is a loss to the islands, and tender to the bereaved family and relatives our heartfelt sympathy.

The funeral of the late John S. Walker will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence in Nuuanu avenue. The funeral obsequies will be under the auspices of Lodge Le Progres de l'Océanie No. 124, A. F. and A. M., of which order the deceased was a member. Hawaiian Lodge, No. 21, will also be represented. The Hawaiian National band will be stationed near the grave to render dirges during the burial services. Rev. Alex. Mackintosh will officiate.

From a lengthy biographical sketch in the Commercial Record, we condense the following:

[John S. Walker was a native of Aberdeen, Scotland. There he received a good education, and being too ambitious to spend his life quietly amid the slow-going customs of the old country, he set sail for America at the age of seventeen, and landed in Quebec, Canada, in 1842, with a liberal endowment of brains, energy and enterprise as his capital. From Canada Mr. Walker proceeded to Wisconsin, where in company with Mr. John Center, now of San Francisco, he began prospecting and lead mining, which occupation he followed with varied success, but finally reached California.

After a short stay in Sacramento, he proceeded, in 1852, to Marysville, where he engaged in business, which he continued successfully until 1854. During the hardships and privations of the trip across the continent, Mr. Walker contracted the mountain fever, and decided to make a trip to the Sandwich Islands for his health, arriving here November, 1854. His intentions were to remain here for a few months only, but as with many others who came to the Paradise of the Pacific with similar intentions, he made it his home ever since. Soon after arrival he accepted a temporary position as bookkeeper with the firm of Hinchel & Co., after which he filled the same position with Thos. Spencer, and remained with him until 1861.

He then engaged on his own account, in the shipping and importing business, and as agent for and part owner in different whaling and merchant ships. This was the beginning for Mr. Walker of a long and active mercantile career. He afterwards devoted his entire attention to commercial affairs until 1874, when he was appointed minister of finance in Kalakaua's cabinet. This office he held until 1876, when he and Col. Z. S. Spalding became members of the firm of W. G. Irwin & Co., which was established that year, and which partnership continued until 1880. It was then dissolved, W. G. Irwin becoming associated with Mr. Claus Spreckels, and Mr. Walker being again appointed to the king's cabinet as minister of finance and as attorney general ad interim.

In 1886 Mr. Walker was appointed auditor general, an office of life tenure; but, not considering himself justified in sacrificing his entire time for a salary, he resigned on January 1st, 1887. Since that time he was a member of the legislature, and held a seat in the halls of that body during most of the sessions for the past fifteen years. He was president of the legislature of 1886, 1890 and 1892. He was a noble, under appointment by the throne, until the new constitution of 1887 made that office elective, when he was again returned to the polls, for the six-year term, to a seat in the legislature. He was a member of the privy council since 1874, and served at different times on the boards of immigration, health and education. His means, however, have been acquired principally in commercial pursuits and by judicious transactions and investments in real estate, and in conducting an extensive and lucrative business in fire, life and marine insurance, in the Spreckels block.

Mr. Walker married, in 1866, Miss Jane McIntosh, a Honolulu lady of Scotch nativity. He leaves a family of ten children—five boys and five girls—all of whom are highly cultured, and are eminently respected members of the best society in Honolulu. His oldest son, J. S., Jr., has been engaged in business with his father. One of his daughters was married to E. Faxon Bishop, a prominent young business man of Honolulu.

Mr. J. S. Walker was a man of pleasing manners, agreeable disposition and generous nature, for whom everybody had a good word, and was universally respected as an honorable business man and a gentleman.

DISAPPOINTED PEOPLE

Not Enough State-rooms to Supply the Local Demand.

Contrary to expectation the steamer Gaelic has a heavy passenger list, and a number of Honolulu people were disappointed as they expected to get away on her. Among them are Mr. T. C. Porter, ex-minister of finance, and Dr. M. E. Grossman. They now expect to get away on next Tuesday in the City of Peking. The agents of the steamer think that she will have enough disengaged state-rooms to supply the local demand. The following persons will leave on the Gaelic: Lieut. Ehlers, Lieut. Eggers, M. R. Heags, Baron de Tuyl and Dr. Griffiths.

It was learned last evening that the steamer would not depart until 11 o'clock this morning. The first barge will leave for the steamer at 7 A. M., and the second and last will leave the mail wharf at 10 o'clock.

THE BLUE AND THE GRAY.

Graves of Departed Veterans Will be Decorated Today.

Decoration Day will be observed today by the George W. de Long Post, G.A.R. The members of the Post will meet at their rooms this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, when the line will be formed preparatory to the march to the cemetery. The procession promises to be a long one, and it will be headed by the Hawaiian band. Some veterans from the U. S. S. Adams will be in line, and, in addition, detachments from companies A and E of the military forces will help to swell the ranks. Marshal Hitchcock has ordered a squad of policemen to lead the way. Captain Parker will have charge of the men. Mr. W. R. Castle will deliver the oration at the graves.

WILL PLEASE EVERYBODY.

Hon. W. C. Wilder is Elected Vice-President.

In the executive session of the executive and advisory councils of the government, which was held yesterday afternoon, Hon. W. C. Wilder was unanimously elected vice-president of the Provisional government of the Hawaiian Islands in place of Mr. S. M. Damon, who resigned to accept the office of minister of finance. The election of Mr. Wilder leaves a vacancy in the advisory council which will be filled hereafter.

Postponement of an Opera.

For some weeks preparations have been going on for a production of Gilbert and Sullivan's tuncful opera, "The Gondoliers." Everything was going along nicely and the first rehearsal was held on last Saturday evening. The projectors now find that the production will have to be indefinitely postponed owing to the unexpected departure of the Hyacinth. Three officers on board were to take prominent parts.

At the Hawaiian Hotel.

J. C. Syme and wife, H. W. Weston and Miss Blair are late arrivals at the Hawaiian hotel. A large number of the Gaelic's passengers had dinner at that house last evening and among the number was His Highness the Nawab of Rampur, an India prince who is en route to Chicago.

Thomas on the Warpath.

E. B. Thomas called at the ADVERTISER office last evening in search of the Star man, who had the temerity to say that he was slugged with a beer glass. Mr. Thomas declares he was not slugged and if anybody says so they must meet him on the field of honor.

Tourists and others visiting Hilo can find the DAILY ADVERTISER and HAWAIIAN GAZETTE (weekly) on sale at the store of J. A. Martin, Waianuenue street.

HAMAKUA NOTES.

The Trials of a Local Barkeeper—Rumored Changes in the Police Force.

(Special to the ADVERTISER).

HAWAII, May 24.—A Japanese laborer lost the most of his right hand by being caught in some of the machinery of the steam plow at Paauhau on Thursday of last week. Carelessness on his part is said to be the cause.

Dr. Greenfield has been laid up for some days with inflammatory rheumatism of the knee. Hamakua has just had its annual visitation of the book agent. Business being dull, he gave up the chase at Honokaa and left for Honolulu by the Claudine.

Thus far, the Hamakua jail is the only house prepared to entertain guests that will attend the sitting of the circuit court in July at this place. Some effort should be made on the part of our people to place all comers at as good advantage as possible. We can certainly do as well by them as Waimea formerly did, but unless we "get a move on" we will not. It is stated that the docket is rather large, and that will bring many people as jurors, witnesses, attorneys, etc.

It is strongly rumored that the end of the month will witness a number of changes in the make-up of the police force of this district. It may be well to suggest to the powers in control of this department, that they discharge the entire force, and only employ one man in the future. Where the plantations pay their own police, one man and the deputy sheriff is all the force needed to do the work that is being done in this district now. There is room for quite a saving here, and no corresponding detriment to the service.

Louis Longfield left for Honolulu by the last trip of the Claudine from Paauhau. He was closed out of the "Honokaa Dew Drop," on a judgment in favor of Peacock & Co. for $150. He has had quite a career in this place, purchasing it some two and a half years ago for $800 cash, did a fair business for a while, was caught in the general drag-net of the police and fined $200, and next came into notice at the time Fred Kingcomb died from over indulgence of drink. At that time he was induced to sign an agreement to quit selling, which he afterwards refused to live up to. For some reason the power of the police could never again be got to work against him, so the citizens had no recourse but to resort to a systematic course of "freeze-out," which resulted as above stated. Adieu, Louis; and may we never see your face again.

It has been very dry and dusty here for more than a month past, with a strong wind blowing to keep the dust moving. Quite a good rain fell this morning to help out a little. It is to be hoped more will follow soon and often.

Miss Mullinger returned home from Honolulu by this trip of the Kinau.

L. P. Lincoln is spending a week seeing the volcano and the sights in and around Hilo.

Rev. Mr. Collender held services in Honokaa Sunday morning, and his regular afternoon service at Paauhau.

Harry Overend is our first departure for the World's Fair. He will visit "the old folks at home" in Cincinnati, Ohio, before he returns or decides not to return. Mr. Chamberlain will leave for Chicago in July. Several others hope to be able to go, but have not completed plans.

Miss Grace Allison has gone to Hilo and the volcano, from which place she will return to her old home in the east.

"German Syrup"

G. Gloger, Druggist, Watertown, Wis. This is the opinion of a man who keeps a drug store, sells all medicines, comes in direct contact with the patients and their families, and knows better than anyone else how remedies sell, and what true merit they have. He hears of all the failures and successes, and can therefore judge: "I know of no medicine for Coughs, Sore Throat, or Hoarseness that had done such effective work in my family as Boschee's German Syrup. Last winter a lady called at my store, who was suffering from a very severe cold. She could hardly talk, and I told her about German Syrup and that a few doses would give relief; but she had no confidence in patent medicines. I told her to take a bottle, and if the results were not satisfactory I would make no charge for it. A few days after she called and paid for it, saying that she would never be without it in future as a few doses had given her relief." ☐
